Psalms 150: 3-4

This Good Life is filled with opportunities to celebrate! Everyone can participate, and no one has to miss out”. This year, 2012, was planted in 2011; each season has a planting time, and a time to see and hear good results.

We live in expectation to see the increase and the shortening of time between our request and the result.

We have moved from some who have experinced success and increase, to more having success and happiness; that is proving God. Hearing someone like you tell how things got better, in real honesty, you know a true heart speaking when you hear it.

It is worth Praising God for how He is true to his word. Many worked with God's Word and were able to live better and do more with God.

This year we noticed an increase of God's Power in healing. There were more people receiving healing and staying healed of every thing. We have seen in gatherings like this , God's presence to heal, deliver and help anyone in need.

We have been preparing for the joy, happiness and God's goodness that will be present and active. God will make His good will to heal, bring peace, happiness, and fulfillment clear. Come be filled !

This night there will plenty of food and, we believe, plenty of miracles !

So let us all come together again and be overjoyed in God !

Well, Come on!

“Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp. Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.”
